

10 Prayers You Should Pray for Your Marriage

Ron Edmondson

Do you believe in prayer? And do you love your marriage?
Well here are some suggestions for praying for your marriage.

Dear Lord,

1. Grow our love for You daily.
2. Help us to love each other unconditionally.
3. Allow us to respect one another in an empowering way.
4. Teach us how to complete each other, building us into one unit You design.
5. Rid our hearts from grudges or bitterness towards one another, teaching us to forgive readily and extend grace continually.
6. Let us encourage each other to achieve the dreams you give us individually and jointly.
7. Keep us humble, placing each other's needs ahead of our own.
8. Guard our hearts from selfishness and self-centered desires.
9. Protect our marriage from the destruction of outside influences.
10. Make our commitment deeper than our emotions, stronger than the seasons of change and the trials which will come our way.
